BROKEN HEARTS

Will Hold the Boards at the Colonial Theatre Tonight

Gory & Taterka's "Broken Hearts" company will hold the boards at the Colonial Theatre tonight. The play is one of high merit, with a company of artists. The story is taken from one of New England's picturesque towns which meet with so much favor with the theatre-going people. It shows how a country girl is enticed away from home by a city gentleman who with his fine clothes and talk wins the girl temporarily.

This city gentleman plays a clever game so that he might obtain the fortune left to this girl. His plans however, are spoiled by the honest country young man who loves the girl and follows her to the great city. Once in the city the young man disfigures himself and in that way spoils the city gentleman's plans. One of the sensational scenes in the theatre any time, also showing the brutal manner in which the inmates are treated. The escape from the asylum is also very sensational. Specialties are introduced in the play.

TWO HOUSES BURNED

But Only the Owner of One Lost Any Thing.

Two houses in Pittsburg were totally destroyed by fire recently. The owner of one lost practically everything he had in the world. The owner of the other didn't lose a penny.

One of the burned houses contained the savings of the owner, all his valuables even the deed for the house itself, and everything was destroyed. The owner of the other house had his savings in a bank, his valuable papers in a safe deposit and his house and furniture insured. He lost nothing.

Comment is scarcely necessary. The wisdom of having your savings in a strong bank like the First National of Connellsville for the money is apparent and it is equally true that the place for your valuable papers is a Safe Deposit Box in the same reliable institution.

FRIDAY EVENING, OCT. 18, 1907.

IN THREE ACTS.
The police investigation has proven to be a comedy in three acts, but at the conclusion of last night's performance, every body was not actively happy, and it is evident that the end is not yet.
While the police have merited some of the criticism they have received, they demonstrated that they were entitled to some credit, which had not been given them, and upon the whole that they were not any worse than the average Connellsville policeman, but in fact that their work had been creditable considering all the difficulties under which they labored.
The hearing developed some jealousy between the police force and the so-called free police. The latter are charged with neglecting their duties so far as the police end of them are concerned. Possibly the free police feel that they are doing double duty for less than police pay. Perhaps it would be better to put them all on the same footing both as to pay and as to service.
The complaint of the policemen, that they have too many bosses, is well founded; yet the law makes it so, and until the law is repealed they will have to make the most of it. While the police force are under the immediate supervision of the Burgess, the Police Committee, which employs and dismisses them, has always made it plain to them that the orders of the committee are supreme, and that the wishes of the individual members must be respected under no circumstances.
These facts were further and emphatically impressed upon the members of the force last night.
The proposition to place the police under the sole direction and control of the Burgess meets with no answer, and the Burgess is the part of the Police Committee, which employs and dismisses them. The members of this committee do not propose to yield one jot or tittle of their authority. If they use it wisely, there will be no serious objection; but they must make the use of the first and prime requisite of such use lies in the upholding of the hands of the Burgess in the proper discharge of his duties as the chief executive officer of the borough.

POWDER MILLS AND PUBLIC RIGHTS.
The Indiana powder mill explosion was so disastrous and far-reaching in its consequences that the public may better understand the opposition of the fair-chance people, evidenced by the strike and long-continued litigation, against the location of such an industry near the town.
It is evident that such industries are dangerous to any community, and that in the interest of public safety they should be located remote from any habitation. This requirement is not necessarily a vexatious one for the powder companies. They should not find it difficult to procure suitable locations, and once located, others will build in close proximity at their peril.
The law should regulate the location of powder and high-explosive plants, just as it regulates the location of powder magazines and the sale of inflammable materials, and such regulation should afford reasonable relief to the owners of adjacent land which will necessarily become valuable for building and many other purposes.

THE COPPER CORNER AND THE TIMES.
The Wizard of Wall Street, otherwise known as Edward H. Harriman, says there is plenty of money in the country, but the people seem to be keeping it in their pockets.
With such financial performance as the recent Copper Corner and the disastrous results, is it any wonder the people are keeping out of speculation? The situation is the logical result of the wild period of feverish stock gambling which has infected the whole country. The people have been on a big financial spree and reaction has set in. They are sobering up and are now suffering only from an excess of caution.
Things will be better when they feel better.
The Stir Chamber is a relic of the Dark Ages, when Justice hid her head and Oppression ruled the People.
Promptness is a great virtue in business and perhaps a greater one in public business.
To the erratic individual who is walking from McCleery to Cumberland on a wagon to make it in five days, we would respectfully suggest that he keep a sharp lookout for railway trains and avoid the habit of sleeping on the tracks.
The School Board missed fire again last night. Its tardy and recalcitrant members may not always miss being fired, though.
Dunbar is the center of Republican politics to-day.
The Hon. William B. Wilson of Pennsylvania thinks that if he can wear the hat of a Congressman he ought to be able to wear the shoes of President John Mitchell and the miners' union. Congressmen, however, are made, while successful leaders of great movements are born.

Game is not abundant this fall, but there are indications of the usual crop of hunting accidents.
Both the cops and the coppers are getting it in the neck.

IT IS YOU
and not some one else that we want to interest in these advertisements. A plain question of business. If things are better here and better priced you owe it to your pocketbook to buy here, and when a store as old and as reliable as this makes a statement that these things are true of the goods here it is your duty to investigate. A visit to this store will give you an opportunity to find out for a fact whether our statements are correct or not. And it is not just a few particular items that we want to tell you about or to show you. Once you pay this store a visit neither the store or you will ever be satisfied until you come to look on this store as your own home store. One statement that we want to make and that is that this is not a cheap store. One that puts price before quality; that sells a thing that it can't get; that lives on the gullibility of the people, always promising something for nothing. This is not that kind of a store.

Munsing Underwear
Every year we sell more and more of Munsing Underwear. It is made from the best material obtainable under ideal sanitary conditions. Its durability and washability always commend it. Women's vests and drawers, heavy lined at 50 cents the garment. Women's union suits, lined at $1 the garment. Men's vests and drawers, lined, 50c the garment. Women's union suits, lined, $1.25 each.

Fancy Scotch Flannels
A table of these as you enter the door, 28 inches wide, 36 inches wide, and the price is 50 cents the yard. Don't put off too long seeing these as there is only about a dozen pieces in the lot.

Brodcloths $1.25 a yard.
A bargain in broadcloths, 3 colors only, red, navy and dark green, 54 inches wide and worth more money than this price of $1.25 the yard.

Children's Furs
First showing of children's sets. Priced from $2.50 up to $30.00 the set. Children's furs that are made right and the kind of fur that you would want your child to have. Largest showing around $5 and $6.

Suits
We have some one here in the store competent to make any alterations that may be necessary to insure a perfect fit. The best evidence that we have that the suits we have here are right in every way. We have more than doubled any previous business in this department, and we believe that these extra values that we have been and are showing at $25 have helped in a great way this increase in this department. If you have a suit want you owe it to your pocketbook to see the showing we have here. We've lost of suits at other prices but we have made the very best value at $25 that it was possible to show.

Elegance and Strength are happily combined in all the footwear we offer. They are pitiable, strong and durable. They resist hard usage and return in wear every cent expended in their purchase; and they have style, too, something that every shoe hunter's got. The cost of good shoes here is not more than you have paid elsewhere for poor shoes.

Make No Mistake
If you have but $2 that you want to invest in a pair of shoes, come to us. The superior grade of leather used in our Women's Shoes, coupled with their style and correct fitting warrants any woman in her insisting that the shoes offered her elsewhere shall be as good as Norris & Hooper's. The standard of value, service, comfort, style, is found in our $2 shoes. Examine them for your self.

Horner
Dressed in one of our handsome suits a man will be his own letter of recommendation, for wisdom will tell you that, while good clothes do not make the man or break him, they give him a lift along the lane of life. You see many well dressed men on the streets nowadays, and a large percentage of them are wearing our Clothes of Quality.

SUIT PRICES RANGE
$12, $15, $18 up to $25.
Let quality influence you and not the price.
So we ask you to come and see what the price will buy here in the way of quality.

Good Fitters
It is undoubtedly true that no tailor fitting shoes over produced than the "Queen Quality." Their maker is a genius in combining fit with style. "They fit where others fall" and "give ease the first day worn" are proverbial with every shoe man.
But you know yourself that they must have some merits superior to other shoes. A factory output of 10,000 pairs per day—the largest in the world—tells you that. Try a pair next time.

Combine our two basements into one and it would compare favorably with the basements of Pittsburgh's biggest stores in size. We consider them one in our buying and gain striking buying advantages through the bulk of our purchases. Its due to the advantage gained thus that these four values are made possible.

1-qt. COFFEE POT of Steel Enamel, notched outside, white inside, worth 50c, at 35c	15-qt. DISH PAN of Steel Enamel, a fine value, offered you at the phenomenally low price of 25c

$5.00
It's Buying Power in the World of Millinery

Money has a different value in the views of different people. There are women who really care to be saving and yet cannot spend money to the best advantage. Right here in Connellville we have several establishments that produce millinery at $5.00, but there is a mighty slight of difference between making a hat and pricing it at $5.00 and making one and having it worth $5.00. The woman who is really judicious will visit every millinery store in town and examine their hats before making a purchase. We wish every woman in Connellville would do this. Our millinery business is largely done with the shrewdest shoppers.

In All the World
There are no better Shirts than the "Monarch" and the "Cluett."

We mean of course, at corresponding prices "one dollar" and "one dollar and a half." They are the output of the biggest Shirt and Collar factory in the world. Made by a company that have first choice of fabrics and who employ the most skilled of labor. We cannot describe all the pretty new patterns here. We want you to see them. It's worth your while. We show a comprehensive line in regular and coat styles, all at authoritative Fall fabrics and priced at

$1.50 and $1.00

WRIGHT-METZLER COMPANY

The Shrewdness of a Community is Judged by the Quality of Its Stores

Abraham Lincoln once said: "You can't fool all of the people all of the time." This saying has become an axiom. If you were to go into a strange town and live there a year, and in that town was a store that advertised every day in that year to sell goods for less than cost, and if every inhabitant in that town believed this tale, you would judge them very simple, wouldn't you? You would move out; you wouldn't care to live among such people. Of course there are such stores in every community and some people believe them (not many of course) fewer every season; for "once bitten, twice wise," the old saying goes. The wonderful growth of the Wright-Metzler Co. attests to the shrewdness of the bulk of Fayette county's population. Our business is conducted on a one-price basis. No deception, no uncertainty. We only claim to give you a good dollar's worth, and after all a dollar's worth of this season's merchandise is worth more than two dollars worth of the old shop-worn merchandise of seasons past—isn't it?
